

Accreditation and Recognition panel member

Name: Daniel Grant

Team member

Job title: Professor of Clinical Pharmacy and Pharmacy Education, University of Reading

Dan registered as a pharmacist in 2000, working initially within secondary care, before joining academia as a Teacher Practitioner Pharmacist in 2006, in a joint post between the University of Reading and Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (OUH). Within secondary care, Dan has experience of leading technician training and development, and leading a regional Foundation (pre-registration) training programme and was a Designated Supervisor (pre-registration tutor) for more years than he can remember! Within academia, Dan has held roles including MPharm Programme Director, Lead Pharmacist – Teacher Practitioner, and Director of Teaching & Learning. In 2021, he took on the role of Associate Pro-Vice Chancellor (Education and Student Experience) and maintains oversight of teaching and learning and student experience for three schools, including all of the University's health-related programmes.

Dan is experienced in the development, quality assurance and accreditation of professionally regulated programmes. He worked as a standard setter for the General Pharmaceutical Council's Registration Assessment from 2015 to 2022, then moved to join the Board of Assessors. He is also a member of the Assessment Regulatory Committee of the Royal Pharmaceutical Society. He joined the Accreditation and Recognition Team for undergraduate pharmacy programmes in 2020 and really enjoys working with the other team members and getting the opportunity to meet colleagues from the education providers being reviewed.

Dan is a University Teaching Fellow and Senior Fellow of the Higher Education Academy. He is currently undertaking a professional doctorate in education with the Institute of Education at Reading.
