

Accreditation and Recognition panel member

Name: Stephen Doherty

Team member

Job title: Head of Foundation School, NHS England

Stephen is currently the Head of Foundation School for NHS England in the North West of England.

Stephen studied pharmacy at the Robert Gordon University before undertaking his pre-registration and rotational training at Salford Royal Hospital. He subsequently worked in a range of teaching, specialist and district general hospitals in both specialist and generalist roles, including renal medicine, acute admissions and as an undergraduate tutor. He also qualified as an independent prescriber.

Since 2017 Stephen has worked in regional and national roles, leading on developments relating to pre-registration/foundation trainee pharmacists, advanced and consultant pharmacist practice and the wider workforce and non-medical prescribing.