

Declaration of Interests

For GPhC Associates and Partners

Use this form to update the declarations you have made about your financial and other interests that could potentially conflict with your GPhC role and that could influence, or be seen to influence, your objectivity when making decisions on behalf of the GPhC. We will use this information to check you are able to carry out your role effectively, and that we are meeting the standards of good governance. We will keep a register of your interests and publish the information you provide on our website.

What should I declare?

The interests you have already declared are prepopulated on the form. For each section you should indicate if they are still accurate, and if not, make changes.

You should declare...

Direct financial interests

Indirect financial interests

Non-financial interests

Interests of those close to you

Professional Registration

Keeping the register of interests up to date

We will ask you to update this declaration annually. In the meantime, if you have another interest to declare (for example if you take on another role), let us know straight away using the details below – don't wait for us to contact you.
