

CPD planned learning form – education and training

1. What are you planning to learn?

I am planning to learn about the 'Prevent' organisation – it's role and functions and how it may relate to my role in teaching students.

I want to learn how to detect if a student may be radicalised, and what to do if I suspect a student is being influenced in this way. This is of benefit to students who may be subject to radicalisation directly but also to their peers.

2. How are you planning to learn it?

I am planning to attend a training session at the university campus.

3. Give an example of how this learning has benefited the people using your services.

This learning will benefit my students as I am now aware of the behaviours they may display that could indicate they are being influenced in this way. I am aware of what action to take should I have any concerns, and I would inform the relevant authorities to arrange for intervention for my student. The benefit to the student would be safeguarding, and arranging the appropriate support / intervention for them.

Colleagues in my department have benefited from my learning as I have shared my learning with them and raised awareness of the potential issues - they know that they can come to me if they have any concerns regarding any students.
